In this class, teens not only learn the fundamentals of yoga, but also learn tools for life that help them reduce stress and find balance within. As they learn standing poses, the participants increase coordination and poise while building self-confidence. Additionally, sitting poses increase awareness and reduce mental restlessness. Yoga literally means to “yoke together” mind, body and spirit. Teens learn how to do this in a four-week course under the guidance of a certified yoga instructor with a master’s in education from UNLV and bachelor’s degree in exercise kinesiology from Purdue. Bring a mat to class and prepare to develop strong minds and bodies.

KINDERMUSIK: CARNIVAL OF MUSIC!

We're all natural music makers! We hum while we play and work, sing along with music in the car, and tap our fingers and feet to the beat. In this carnival themed unit, we'll become more comfortable with instruments and our ability to play them, and explore timbre, steady beat, and ensemble experiences. We'll move, play, and sing, and through sounds, stories, songs and games. Learn all about what carnivals have to offer: carousels, clowns, pretzels for sale, and so much more. So step right up—we're off to the Carnival of Music! Classes are held with parent/caregiver present for the last 15 minutes, preparing your child for upcoming school day experiences.
